The Office of Inspector General (OIG) is an Independent office within the AbilityOne Commission created by Congress pursuant to the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended

- Audits and Investigations
- Review Legislation & Regulations
- Provide leadership and coordination, and recommend policies for activities designed to promote economy, efficiency, and effectiveness, and to detect and prevent waste, fraud, and abuse.
- Reporting: Keep the Chairperson and Congress fully and currently informed about problems and deficiencies relating to the Commission and its Program
OIG Office of Audits

- Conducts audits of Commission operations, programs, and functions in accordance with applicable professional standards established by the Comptroller General of the United States (GAO) and CIGIE

- Conducts audits and reviews of internal Commission operations and programs, including Congressionally and Statutory mandated focus areas

- OIG issues Audit reports with its findings and recommendations for corrective action to address any deficiencies or other issues identified

- OIG publishes its work in the OIG website www.AbilityOne.Oversight.gov
• OIG developed and issued a 2-year Audit Plan for Fiscal Years 2022 and 2022 of the Commission’s programs and operations (Released June 2021)

• The OIG audit activity is designed on risk-based factors surrounding the AbilityOne Program functions, operations, major activities, and program priorities and challenges.

• Conducts strategic planning, including development and execution of statutory mandates
Recently Completed OIG Audits

- CNA Selection of NPAs for Project Assignment and Allocation of Orders
- Procurement List Addition Process, Procedures, and Practices
